FOREWORD

THEN and NOW

Bustles, hoopskirts
Lavender, old lace—
In turning these pages
You'll set a dizzy pace.
Riding a tandem
Through "Now and Then"
You'll experience the things
They did "back when."
Taffy pulls, hay rides,
Rugby in the fall,
Because, you know, in Grandma's time
They didn't play football.
And now we leave you
In hopes that you'll enjoy
The records of this happy year
That did our time employ.

DEDICATION

To Our Alumni

Our theme is "Now and Then,"
And dates to way back when,
That's why we dedicate
This book to those of yore,
They always were on time
When the school bell rang,
Those lads and lassies who knew no slang;
But they too had their fun.
You folks, for us, did pave the way
In all things, both work and play;
This book is meant for you.
Don't stop until you're through,
And if then, you heave a sigh,
Please think of us, dear alumni,
We will be with you soon.

MAINTENANCE STAFF

The maintenance staff is a silent organization of the school. These men and women begin their duties early in the morning, and their work continues long after the teachers leave at night. When a window sticks in study hall, a janitor is called to correct the difficulty. If the teacher's door is locked, a janitor hurries to the rescue. On cold, dark winter days, when the students' teeth are chattering, the janitor is notified to turn up the heat. Shoveling snowy walks, scraping icy steps, or cutting the grass, all are a part of the janitors' routine. On nights of school plays, concerts, or dances, the staff must be on the job to see that the heating is properly adjusted, the doors opened, and the lighting arranged. Few students realize what a vital necessity the maintenance staff is to the smooth, unhampered operation of the high school.

A DAY AT W.T.H.S.

At eight twenty-five one morning
We see approaching our school
An old-fashioned horse and buggy
A conveyance that's hardly the rule.
To be sure, it's Mirandy and Ezekiel
Sitting on that two-by four seat
They're the old-fashioned lad and lassie
Whom we all have been waiting to meet.

Mirandy is wearing a hoopskirt
With a big bow on top of her puff,
Her pantalettes peek out from her skirt hem,
Her hands are snug in a muff.
Ezekiel is tall, fair and brawny,
As the striking "Beau Brummel" should be,
His knickers are like those that Grandpa wore,
With buckles clasped tight at the knee.

From the buggy they alight, and come smiling,
To be greeted by Johnny and Jean
Who have agreed to show them the High school,
So here we will now shift the scene.
We next see our friends in the line up,
In the cafeteria, waiting for lunch;
Let's listen to some of their comments,
While our sandwich and salad we crunch.

Mirandy liked the classes in cooking
But she had learned cooking at home.
Ezekiel enjoyed the Industrial shops
They reminded him of the poem
About the blacksmith, strong and brawny,
And the wondrous things that he wrought
With his anvil, forge and hammer
Ere the wane of brawn and thought.

At three-ten, when the closing bell rings
We encounter our two friends once more,
They're tired and ready for home now,
They long for the good days of yore,
As the quaint couple mount their conveyance
They wave us a cheery goodbye,
We're sorry to see them leave us,
But back to the Nineties they hie.

"Jingle bells, Jingle bells,
Class of '39,
Though you've left our learned halls,
Your deeds and words still shine."

Above the lively din rose the merry shouts of the January class of '39 on their sleigh ride of school life. Amidst the shouts and laughter could be heard a school yell led by Robert Knox, president, Lawrence Ferry, vice-president, and Janet Morrow, secretary-treasurer.

As they glided merrily on their way, several boys dropped off and ran along behind the sleigh, packing snow balls and hurling the frozen missiles into the midst of shrieking girls. Indulging in this sport were Otto Graham, Lawrence Ferry, Donald Birchfield, and Leonard Machak. Tooting horns and ringing bells were Donald and DeLose Tschabold and Eino Jenstrom. Trying to make themselves heard above the confusion were Bertram Rubin and Bertram Claboe. Like well behaved military officers they attempted to quiet the noise. Leading the group in singing and clever little verses were Catherine Goble, Shirley Ehnert, and Ruth Jacobs. During the entire ride, Lois French, Pat McNamara, Margaret Boyles, and Marion Pillifant, took careful note of all events in order to record them in the Annual "W," while Willard Bowers, editor of the Student "W," could be heard shouting "scoop." Martha Ebert, valedictorian, and Mary Alice Allen, salutatorian, gathered an audience when they held a contest on quoting Shakespeare.

Amid much cheering and shouting, the sleigh faded from sight around Graduation Bend; gone but not forgotten!

"Oh, what fun is a hay ride!
Up and down the hay they slide,
Such ups and downs this class must take
If Success Hill they wish to make."

Such shouts and yells! They must be coming from the old hay rack rumbling down the lane. It's the annual hayride given by the Senior B's and the load is being teamstered by Mr. Suchanski and Miss Osling. Oh, oh, one of the wheels has rolled off and the wagon is dragging on one side. Somebody will have to get out and push, and who should volunteer but Andy Galvin, Harry Whyte and Chuck Dalton. Andy has helped push the wagon for three years and has done his job well.

Heavyweights, George Cooper, Mickey Van Heirseele, Dick Dietz and Vinny Levandusky are trying to replace the wheel and they're doing fine because Harry and Chuck have been excused from pushing long enough to play a refrain with Al Ofenloch. "The Entry of the Gladiators," which they dedicate to the men at the wheel, is their selection.

It's now time for a little vocal music while we wait. Let's swing out on a chorus of "Turkey in the Straw" with Bob Whitaker, Larry Storms, Edward Short, Dorothy Luce, and Roberta Stewart leading the group. Kitty Leech and Suzie Henderson are ready to put on a little dramatic skit with Shirley Johnson, June Enerson and Wayne Hanson in the supporting roles, so let's give them our attention.

We've had enough entertainment for this year, but lest we forget, we must mention that Miriam Boxerman was the co-editor of the yearbook. Hurdora La Rose, Evelyn Sandus, Betty Nimits, Shirley Thom, Jean Schaefer and Mary Hoogasian were among her henchmen. Then there are Mary Barron, Evelyn Samson, Joe Devenas, Lila Kunz, and Robert Rogers, all prominent on the staff of the "W" World.

We've also had enough excitement for one year, and now that the wheel is on, we'll let our crew back on the wagon. "Giddy up," shouts Henry Eads, the military leader of the class, and the wagon lumbers down the road again.

Swing them forward into the light,
Into the light which leads to fame,
In letters bright you'll see your name."

Amid the lusty gee-haws and guffaws of the farmers and farmerettes is heard the music of the rarin', tearin', wearin', bunch of music makers. Can't you hear the sweet notes from Norman Schwartz's and George Dietmeyer's licorice sticks? By the way, folks, in case you didn't know it, this is the W.T.H.S. Barn Dance, sponsored by Miss E. Higley and Mr. Melton. Isn't that music nice and corny? Lorraine Deibler is at the piano pounding out an old refrain, accompanying the tenor yodler, Richard Greene.

Garbed in gay bandanas and patched overalls are the host and hostesses of this affair. The class prexy is leading the "Virginia Reel" with his partner, Anne Chaderjian. The king and queen of popularity are also present, Tom Tinsley and Anita Perry.

Ready to dance right into their final year of activities, this class stands posed and ready for anything.

The curtain rises. The Junior B Class makes its entrance on the W.T.H.S. stage of events. As producers of the "melodrammer" of scholastic life, they are proud to present, "Who Done Right by This Here School," introducing the heroes and heroines of the 1939 hit.

Director Whitey Burnett, assitant-director Kenny Kellner, and script girl Charlotte Mix, under the supervision of Miss Whyte and Mr. Singer, toiled for days to insure that the production should go off without a hitch.

Johnny Jerusis, Ernie Kowal, Alex Kapter, Bobby Pierce, Kenny Clapham, Whitey Burnett, Bill Gedge, and Lenny Szczepanek all W.T.H.S. sports stars, were hailed by the dramatists, Jo Anne Kirkham, Betty Hansen, Ruth Schiff, Emma Belle Pierce, with loud cries of "My Hero!"

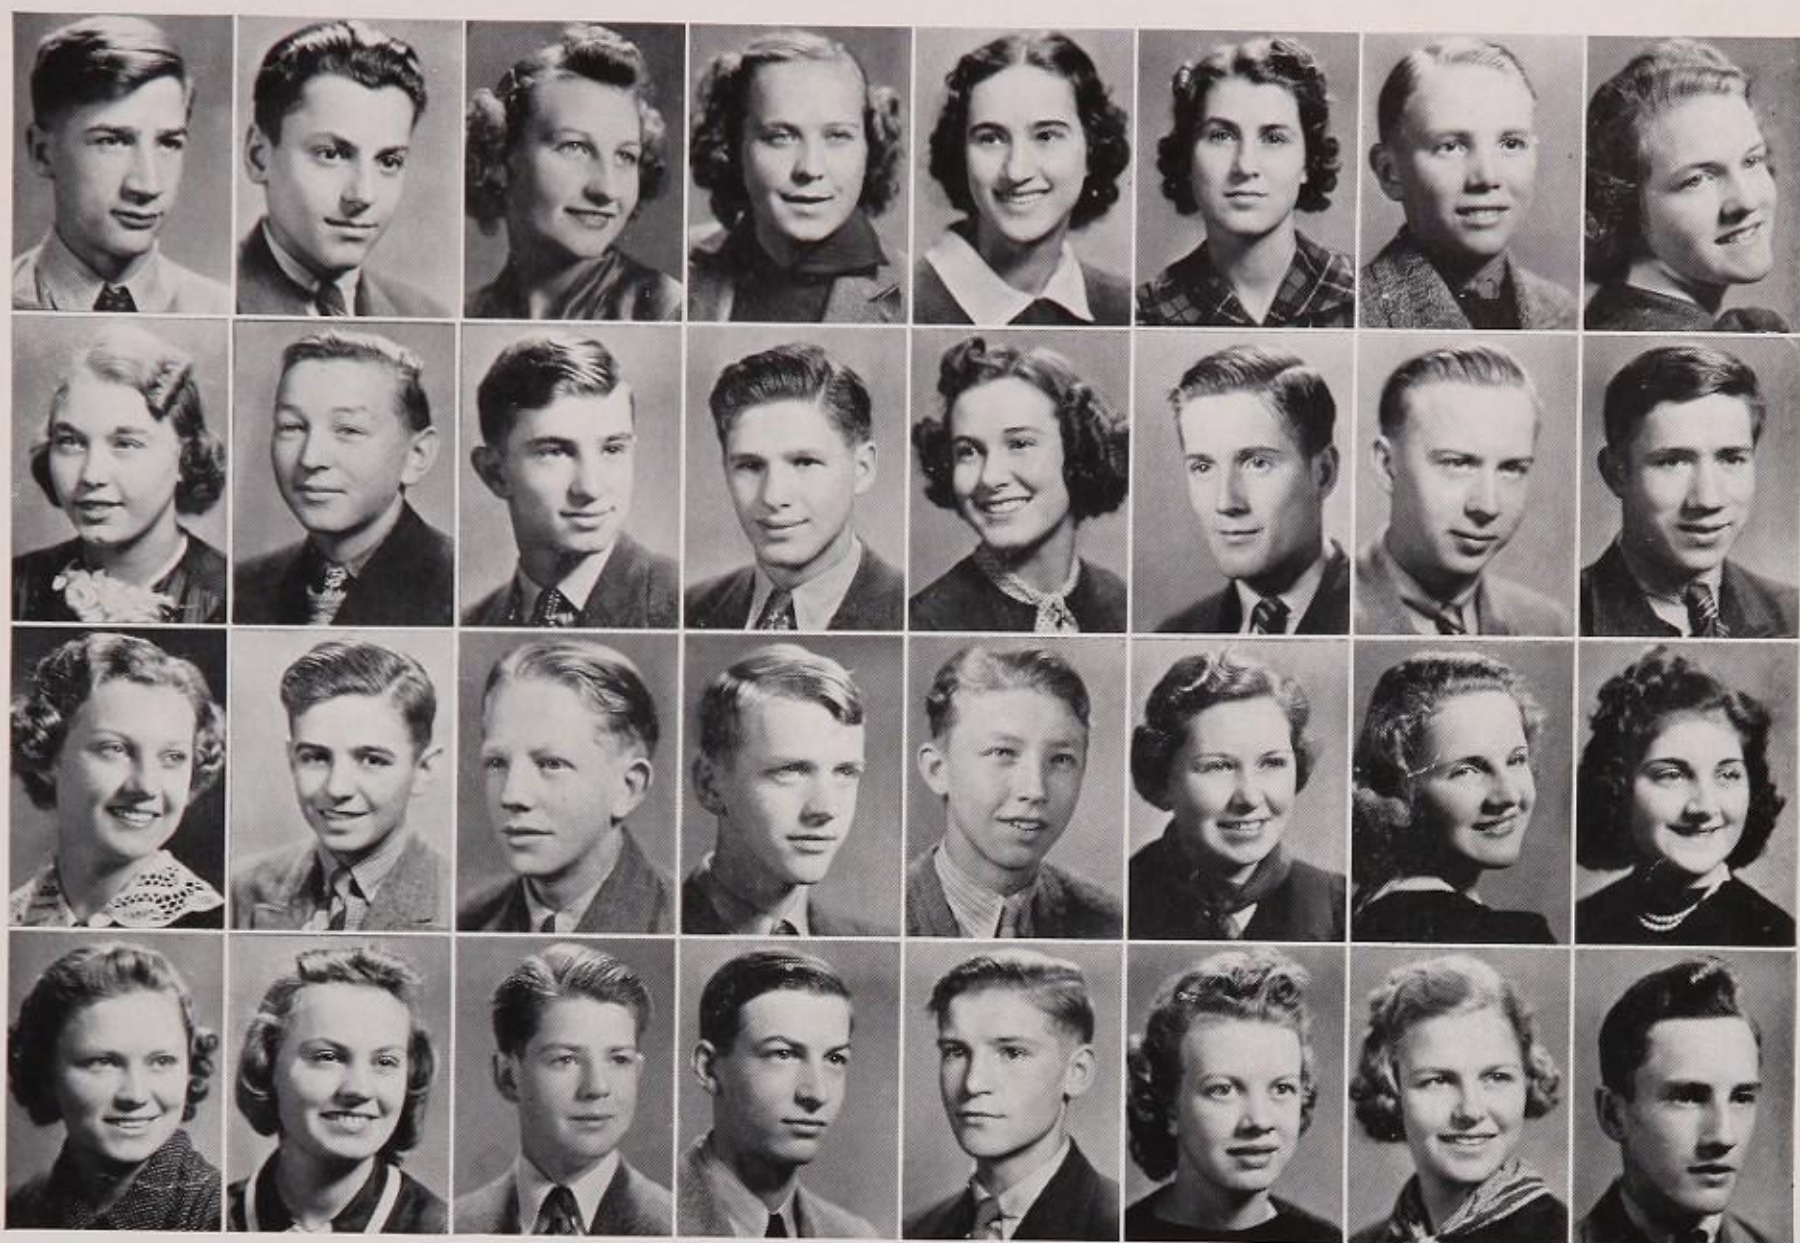

Betty Faassen, Betty Meekins, Patty Alex, Iggy Henderson, and Milo O'Dell provide the operatic background to the plot, and Ray Cameron and Walter Hoff created the proper military atmosphere as they thundered upon the stage crying, "Unhand her, Villians!" and "Never darken these here doors again."

During the intermission the noisy shifting of scenery was effectively drowned by the musicians, George Biederman, Kermit Kramer, Gloria Douthitt, Teddy Paxton, Dick Jenkenson, Billy Brown, and Al Moore.

Artistically printed booklets describing outstanding events of the performance were distributed with candy and chewing gum between acts. These were arduously compiled by Virginia Reed, Charlotte Mix, Doris Curlee, and Eldene Loftus of the Annual "W" Staff.

As all the gallant performers came trouping back on the stage for the grand finale, they were led by Prom Chairman Barbara Smith, who introduced the actors.

As the curtain slowly descended, we heard the lusty voices of the Junior B class singing "After the Ball is Over."

"Up the pond the skaters glide,
Hand in hand, and side by side,
This is the contest all students take,
Toward their goal! to graduate!"

The participants in this colossal race are just finishing the second lap in the event. It appears that there are very few in this race who will not receive the prize, a diploma.

Evident leaders in the race are: Nancy Doolittle, president; Lois Anderson, vice president; and Joe Wentworth, secretary-treasurer. The race is being sponsored by Miss Clark and Mr. M. G. Thompson.

Special mention should be given in this event to Bill Riley, Robert Tornquist, Alec Anastoff, Bill Sitzmann, and Walter Schroeder, for their speed and sportsmanship; and to Caroline Perry, Laura Van Pelt, and Virginia Crisler, for their artistic performances; Jack Van Sickle cuts a fancy military figure. Among those who receive many admiring glances from the crowd are: Esther Rostker and Anita Lewis, who are taking some graceful dramatic steps.

This class has the highest average of any class in school, and two years from now, when this race will be completed and all contestants will receive their awards, much may be expected from members of the class of January, 1941.

Excitement reigns as the first participant, George Kerkorian, steps forward to give the little wooden ball a mighty blow. He aims and then strikes. The ball rolls neatly through the first two arches and the croquet game has really begun. James Huffine, Lloyd Leech, and Leslie Millholin are the next players to try their skill. Many of the class members among the spectators have placed their hopes with these boys, because they have already witnessed their ability in other sports.

As the game progresses the audience expresses its loud approval of Ann Link, president, Patsy Clark, vice-president, and Edward Stetta, secretary-treasurer, who are all huddled around the middle arch, each trying to knock his ball through first. The crowd finds much amusement at Mackie Beeman who is so engrossed in singing a little ditty that he can't remember to play his turn.

Suzanne Johnson and Wallace Soderquist are proving their dramatic ability by a spectacular play at one of the side arches. Miss Brown and Mr. Dalton, sponsors of the class, are guarding the goal posts in order to have absolute proof as to the winner.

It looks as if Jordan Hillman, Leonard Gordon, and Victor Graham may tie, for they can swing a song as well as a croquet mallet, and it requires rhythm to play croquet.

As the game goes on through the years, many of the students who are now spectators will come forward and take their turns in order to forge ahead in their effort to hit the goal post and win for their class the distinction of being graduates of W. T. H. S.

It's a mighty taffy pull they stage, these freshmen, as they come along the way pulling together for their final score—graduation. Their head chefs are Miss Rautalahti and Mr. John, while their chief cooks are George Makela, president; Betty Sievers, vice-president; and Raymond Smith, secretary-treasurer.

During the process of pulling the taffy there is much discussion concerning the recent class party, given in November. Bob Mills shouts across to Shirley McMahon, who is applying butter to her burnt finger tips, to ask her if she remembers the automobile skit their officers gave at the party. Mildred Goodman, who realizes Shirley's plight, answers for her and assures him that she does remember it and that it was certainly a "roaring" success.

There is also much talk of Eugene Pillifant, who distinguished himself as master of ceremonies at the party. Of course, there are many more present at this taffy pull, who, in the course of time, will step into the limelight and start pulling with all their strength for the class of January, 1942.

Marching along together
Into future days
Marching along together,
Six hundred Freshmen B's!

Marching along into a world of new ideas, sometimes confusing, but always inviting, is the alert class of June, 1942. Not content to be onlookers, the class eagerly planned their introductory whirl into W. T. H. S. activities, a unique spring party and dance. Its success was their reward for splendid class spirit and initiative.

The class sponsors, Miss Steinert and Mr. McDill, have enjoyed the capable cooperation of the officers, Norborn Emerick, president; Robert Nuttall, vice-president; Patsy Oetjen, secretary; and Barbara James, treasurer.

Students who are winning recognition for their school citizenship and activities are numerous, Betty Ann Rachow is one. In athletics, George O'Flaherty, Jack Evans, Breton Emerick; in dramatics Virginia Whitson, Muriel Blumberg, Virginia Birchfield; in music, Edith Dunn and Donald Johnson; in art, Tom Burns and Albert Reetz. And so at the close of their first year in high school, members of the class of June, 1942 are headed for an enviable record as they go marching along together.

1939 ANNUAL "W"

"And what is so rare as a day in June!" That is the refrain that the Annual staff have been humming since they selected the theme for the 1939 Annual last September. After the theme was planned, the pictures were scheduled and taken, checked, and double-checked! All the pictures had to be arranged, and the names and other copy made to correspond with the pictures. Senior questionnaires were copied, typed, re-typed, checked and checked again. Oh, yes, it has been a lot of work, but they have enjoyed doing it. Write-ups are important in the making of a yearbook, and the staff has burned the night oil while preparing them.

The staff staged a subscription campaign in November. Colorful posters decorated the bulletin boards to catch the eyes of the passersby. There were speeches and personal sales talks by the ardent staff salesmen.

That day in June has now arrived and the staff are as glad to be perusing the results of their efforts as anyone.

STUDENT "W" WORLD

MONDAY—Scoop! Two days vacation next week!

Tuesday—Rewrite this copy! Cover the assembly!

Wednesday—Rush that late copy down!

Thursday—Write two number three heads! Read this proof!

Friday—Out at last . . eight whole pages . . turn in next week's columns!

These are just a few sample notes in the life of a Student "W" staff member. This organization is one of the busiest in school. The first part of the week always means a head-long rush for the embryo journalists. Friday brings a delightful lull in activities. Regular issues appear every Friday morning with special issues for Hallowe'en, Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Easter.

Four members traveled to Indianapolis in November as delegates to the National Scholastic Press Association's three-day conference.

A complete change of staff takes place between semesters. Editors this year were Willard Bowers, first semester, Mary Barron and Evelyn Samson for the second semester. The paper turning decidedly feminine with fashion column and "Guppy Says." Mr. Meslow guides the group in their production of the greatest rival of the New York Times.

Numerous details must be carried out in the process of developing a story from the initial incident to the printed page. The assignment, the original draft, copy reading, re-writing, typing, rechecking, linotyping, proofreading, laying out page dummies,—these are but a few of the routine tasks that the editorial staff must attend to before an issue is ready for the final operation, that of actually rolling it off the press in the school shop. Mr. Schoenoff and his boys take charge here, and they make quick work of it, once the week's issue reaches this stage.

Each issue contains news, editorials, features, columns, cartoons, pictures, personal items, and advertisements. The work of publishing the weekly issue is accomplished by the advanced class in journalism which meets for one class period daily. Of course there is usually a good deal of additional work required; this has to be taken care of during afternoon and after school sessions.

COMMERCIAL CLUB

Commercial clubs were unknown back in the Gay Nineties, but in these gay "39's" they are not uncommon. Although a comparatively new organization, the Commercial club has gained members so rapidly that it is now one of the largest clubs in the school.

Its purpose is two-fold. First, to develop an interest in commercial practices, and second, to promote friendliness among those students taking the Commercial course. However, it is not all work; there is also much play. The club's picnic was a jolly affair as was their Christmas party. Their dance was a decided success with many attending.

A club magazine was published for the first time this year with June McDonald as its editor.

Sponsors for this group are Mr. Barnes and Mr. Bauernfeind. Officers for the first semester were Jean Walker, president; Leona West, vice-president; Shirley Ehnert, secretary; and Rose Kerkorian, treasurer.

Officers for the second semester were president, Virginia Owens; vice-president, Peter Lukas; Mary Dillenbeck and Ernest Pollitt, treasurer; Mary Hodnick, parliamentarian.

DEBATE TEAM

Seated: June McDonald, Annie Chaderjian, Madeline Mackey. Standing: William Durka, Sam Rosen, Andy Galvin, Jordan Hillman, S. I. Sandven, coach.

DEBATE

The activities of the debate teams begin early in the fall and continue to the middle of April. The year's activities are divided into three major parts: First, gathering and studying material pertaining to the debate question. Second, preparation of speeches and practice debates. Third, the regular schedule of debates with other schools.

This year Waukegan used two-speaker teams, as did the majority of high schools in the Chicago area. The affirmative speakers this year were Jordan Hillman and William Durka, and negative speakers, Ann Chaderjian and Sam Rosen. The alternates, including those who participated in the forum with New Trier, were June McDonald, Andrew Galvin and Madeline Mackey.

The question discussed this year was "Resolved, that the United States should establish an alliance with Great Britain." This developed into a very unusual question due to the chain of events in Europe. Arguments had to be continually revised to conform to the changing political picture.

Among the opponents were New Trier, Grant, Lake Forest, Maine, and Kenosha. Both decision and non-decision debates were scheduled.

An outstanding event this year was the visit of both teams to Northwestern university. Waukegan received a special invitation to attend an all-day series of debate events. In the forenoon two Northwestern university professors conducted an open forum on the debate question for the visiting high school debaters. Sectional meetings were held in which special phases of debating were discussed. The closing event was a Big Ten debate between Northwestern university and the University of Iowa. The subject debated was the same one used by the high schools this year.

The debaters meet at least once a week after school to go over their speeches. Many long hours are devoted to the work. S. I. Sandven is the debate coach.

500 MILE HIKERS

The 500 Mile Hikers are ardent walking enthusiasts. The shortest hike sponsored is the four mile one, the six mile hike is average, while the longest one is twelve miles.

The club meets twice each month, but the members hike once or twice a week. The purpose of the club is to help boys and girls to enjoy walking and to help them become acquainted with points of interest in and near Waukegan.

Officers for the first semester were president, Alex Lindsay, and secretary - treasurer, Helen Hershberger. The second semester leaders were Walter McKibban, president; Sam Grassa, vice-president; with Helen Hershberger retaining her duties as secretary-treasurer. Mr. Grosche sponsors the club.

Every year the club has time hikes in which the members compete and attempt to set new records. In this year's first time hike, Alladean Jones and Alice Crump broke the girls' record, while Arvin Riley and Alex Lindsay set a new record for the boys. On the second hike June Homac, Alice Zabukovec, Helen Hershberger, and Rosemary Puckett established a new record for the girls, but the boys failed to break their old mark.

Despite the long treks, the members did not get too weary from hiking to enjoy the two parties sponsored by the group. Frolicking and gayety were the order of the parties, with one gaining the distinction of being the best in the club's history.

FRENCH CLUB

The Cercle Francais meets once a month in the Junior Assembly. Under the sponsorship of Miss Weiss the club gives only French programs. They sing all the popular and well-known French songs, play French games and tell of French customs.

Officers are elected twice a year. The first semester officers were: Norman Schwartz, president; Bob Whitaker, vice-president; June Enerson, secretary; and Lorraine Deibler, treasurer; Mary Hoogasian was program chairman. The highlight of the activities of the first semester was the Christmas party.

Officers for the second semester were Gloria Douthitt, president; Hurdora La Rose, vice-president; Sirkka Hannula, secretary; and Barbara Smith, treasurer. Hurdora La Rose was also the program chairman. The programs for the second semester consisted of talks on French manners, French songs, and French games. The club also bought several articles to add to their collection of French souvenirs.

GERMAN CLUB

"Way back when" in 1904, a Mr. Stebbins organized the first Waukegan high school German club. During the World War the study of German was banned and thus the German club was a forgotten and unmentionable subject for several years.

On September 30, 1938 several German students with Miss Bess Dady as adviser, founded a new German club called, Die Deutsche Gesellschaft. Officers elected were William Durka, president, Irene Bottcher, vice-president, and Jordan Hillman, secretary.

The club's main purpose is to acquaint its members with the history, culture, and customs of Germany.

GIRLS' LEAGUE

Just as the Girls' Club of 1909 gave dances in Gurnee, sleigh rides for their "fellers," or hayrides for themselves, so too did the Girls' League of 1938-39 have their social events. Freshman girls were thrilled to have the upper classmen guide them through the winding corridors during Freshmen Orientation, while the football dance attracted a vast crowd. The Carnival, produced with the aid of the G.A.A., drew a packed tent and all thrilled at the sight of the crowning of the King and Queen and their attendants.

Among other events during the year were the pencil campaign, a hike, transfer girls' party, Christmas party, crippled children's party, a Valentine raffle, the Senior Girls' teas, National Honor Society teas, and a Mother and Daughter tea. The girls' club room was made even more lovely this year by the addition of a few pieces of new furniture.

The Lost and Found department and the selling of refreshments during basketball and football games are samples of the services that the girls bring to the school.

Officers of the club were: Anita Perry, president; Ruth Makela, secretary; Anne Link, treasurer; Betty Newenham, vice-president; and Charlotte Mix, council chairman. All are under Miss Rundquist's and Miss Rautalahti's helping hands.

The Conference held at East Aurora high school climaxed the League's activities for the year. Any girl not taking advantage of her automatic membership in the League is sacrificing lots of fun!

GIRL RESERVES

As a Girl Reserve I will be:

Gracious in manner;
Impartial in judgment;
Ready for service;
Loyal to friends.
Reaching toward the best;
Earnest in purpose;

Seeing the beautiful;
Eager for knowledge;
Reverent to God;
Victorious over self;
Ever dependable;
Sincere at all times.

All Girl Reserves, whether they be freshman, sophomore, junior, or senior in classifica-tion, or whether they be in the junior or senior groups, try in every possible way to uphold their code to the best of their ability. Monday afternoons after school find the groups on alternate weeks at the Y.W.C.A. Mrs. A. C. Gartley, Mrs. C. E. Oliver, and Miss Mary Ann Hoefner, of the faculty, sponsor the groups. Assisting the sponsors were Janet Mc-Arthur, president; Dorothy Lindquist, vice-president; Marjorie Fredholm, secretary; Laurel Ann Robinson, treasurer. Other girls headed publicity, social, and program committees, aided by others of the group. Regular meetings were made both interesting and educa-tional by the travel talks presented by various members of the community, panel discus-sions participated in by the entire group, a Christmas party, welfare work, the Mother and Daughters' Tea, the Fashion Show, and the "Sweater Swing" after the Highland Park game.

Due to the fact that the junior group was only recently organized, they haven't had op-portunity to work out their calendar. They participated in the beach party which closed the year for the organization.

HISTORY CLUB

The Board of Directors of the History Club might more correctly be called the steering committee in charge of the club's activities. It is their job to plan and carry out the variety of activities which the club undertakes. The Board consists of the president, vice-president, secretary, treasurer, historian, sergeant-at-arms, and two directors. Roy C. Hurd, club sponsor, is an ex-officio member of all committees and his ready advice is always a source of moral support for the busy committee heads as they struggle to perfect another bonanza program.

HISTORY CLUB

With the ringing of the 3:10 bell on a September afternoon last fall, doors were flung open and droves of students dashed and pushed their way to their lockers. Shoving a few books inside, and grabbing coats and hats, they made a breaking dash for the Junior Assembly. You guessed it! It was the season's first meeting of the History Club! Clambering over two or three people they were at last seated by one of their friends and when Mr. Hurd was finally able to get a word in, he called the first meeting of the History Club to order. The election results were: Lois French, president; Tom Tinsley, vice-president; Pat McNamara, secretary; Harry Whyte, treasurer; June Enerson, historian; Bertram Rubin, sergeant-at-arms; Lorraine Deibler and Larry Storms, directors; and Suzanne Henderson, program chairman.

The History Club started right off with a whiz and a bang as usual. On October 7 there was a panel discussion on vocations. William Durka was chairman of the discussion.

The club sponsored a float, "The Uncovered Wagon" in the Oak Park - Waukegan homecoming parade. In charge of this were June Enerson and Tom Tinsley.

Then came the big Chicago trip on November 5. The group toured the NBC studios and the Hydrox Ice Cream plant, where they were given several samples of ice cream. The excursioners lunched in the Merchandise Mart and in the afternoon saw the Northwestern - Wisconsin game at Dyke's Stadium. Laura Jean Hagerman was chairman for the trip.

At 6:30 on November 11 the fall hike took place. Barbara Smith lead the hikers to Bowen Country Club, where an enjoyable breakfast was served. The usual well-behaved members ended up in prison on November 19. Yes sir, a real prison in the gym where the "convicts" were sentenced to dance till dawn (almost). The hard-boiled warden for the dance was Marjorie Packalen.

At Christmas the silver march for Piney Woods school was taken. The board of directors put on a Christmas skit which will be an annual event.

At last the great day arrived for the eleventh annual History club banquet. The members had the opportunity to travel from the San Francisco fair to the New York fair in one evening. Many beautiful exhibits were received from each fair. In fact, those attending the banquet went home with hands full of souvenirs. General chairman was Hurdora La Rose. Toastmaster, Bob Whitaker, impersonated Grover Whalen from the New York fair. Katherine Leech, toastmistress, was the person-

HI-Y CLUB

The Hi-Y is a group of selected boys ranging from sophomores to seniors who meet at the YMCA every Monday night. Their purpose is "To create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character." After short business sessions, the club is usually benefited by hearing a speaker or seeing movies on day-to-day problems and affairs.

The club sent five boys to the Older Boys' Conference at Peoria. The fellows attended several lectures and brought back many splendid ideas for the benefit of the club.

The Hi-Y group sponsors the Father-Son banquet jointly with local civic clubs.

One of the highlights of the year was enacted at Joliet when the Hi-Y's ping pong team won the state YMCA championship.

The officers were Charles Noll, president; Bertram Rubin, vice-president; Harry Whyte, treasurer; Douglas Anderson, secretary; and Earl Jack, sergeant-at-arms. Earl Jack replaced Bertram Rubin and Norman Schwartz, Douglas Anderson at the beginning of the second semester because of graduation. Lawrence Pfeiffer took Earl Jack's place as sergeant-at-arms upon Jack's promotion.

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

Nothing can equal the home-made candy Grandma used to make! That is the reason the Home Economics Clubs members sponsored a home-made candy sale. The delicious delicacies were enthusiastically bought by both students and teachers.

These ambitious girls made and sold fruit cakes for Thanksgiving and Christmas. The profits of their efforts enabled the group to present an assembly program on pottery making.

The club, under the sponsorship of Miss Lucile Webb, has as its purpose service to the school and to instill in the girls an interest in Home Economics. The officers were: president, Rose Broemelkamp; vice-president, Elizabeth Viant; and secretary-treasurer, Beverly Viant.

The girls made their own raspberry colored uniforms; they serve at school banquets. The Mother and Daughter Tea given in April was successful as well as entertaining.

The high school group is affiliated with the National Home Economics Club.

Featuring one of the meetings was Mr. John's lecture on photography. While a group of the chemists were making a tour of the local filtration plant, the large distribution main burst and the plant temporarily ceased operating for the first time in seven years.

The officers of the club this year were: president, Andy Galvin; vice-president, Larry Storms; secretary-treasurer, Marjorie Packalen. The organization is sponsored by Mr. Hughes.

Arthur Kane, world traveler and lecturer, who entertained at an assembly program in March, was brought to Waukegan by the Junior Red Cross.

Throughout the year a scrap book project was carried out describing the events and activities of the organization. Miss Vera Jerg sponsors the Junior Red Cross group. JUNIOR SAFETY COUNCIL

Let up on the gas! You're not driving a model T. This is a '39 streamliner, the school driver training car you're trying to manipulate. These comments are directed to the members of the Junior Safety Council by Mr. Neary, their leader. This club is dedicated to the promotion of safety in the home and on the street. It's two main objectives this year were the Home Safety campaign and Bicycle Safety campaign.

The leaders for last semester's modern Model T Club were: Dorothy Chour, president; Gladys Hofflander, vice-president; Rauha Hannula, secretary; Mary Loretta Hogan, treasurer. The second semester leaders were: Mary Loretta Hogan, president; Mary Hoogasian, secretary; and Doris Johnson, treasurer.

Leaders of this group of "Artists and Models" were Edward Short, president; Eugene Murphy, vice-president; Hazel Jester, secretary; and Jane Christensen, treasurer. The able sponsor and guardian of these artists is Mr. Jickling.

The activities of the club have been varied this year. They sponsored a successful pencil campaign. This was followed up by the club selling badges at basketball games. The club also gave a dance, the "Valentine Hop." General chairman of this affair was Edward Short.

The members of this organization are rewarded for their efforts. Each poster is rated as a merit, and fifty points earn a club pin. They are a hard-working group who make posters for all the school activities as well as for doings outside of school. Each year after final report cards are given out a picnic is held before the group adjourns for the summer.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council is one of the youngest organizations in the school, yet its importance and effectiveness have already been felt. Each year has seen the Council accomplishing much more than the previous year. This year the council board feels that there has been a decided improvement over last year's work. The purpose of the Council is to create a better institution in which we work and play. Every first and third Tuesday the Student Council is in a business session in the Junior Assembly during Period A. Home Room Representatives and past members of the club make up the Council's membership. An important work carried on by the Council is that of the Hall Monitors. This year's Chairman of Hall Monitors is Charles Noll who assisted the foremen in training and developing an efficient staff of Hall Monitors.

The Council sponsored its annual paper campaign with a total of twenty-two tons of paper and 5,000 coat hangers. Arline Gilbert, as chairman of this year's courtesy campaign, was responsible for the Council's most successful undertaking in this respect. The general assembly program inaugurating Courtesy Week was unusually appropriate and interesting. Charles Dalton, as "Uncle Chuck," conducted a "True and False" contest made up of two teams, one boys and the other girls. The girls proved to know more about courtesy than the boys, for they outpointed them. Other worthwhile activities sponsored by the club were the "Jinx Dance" after the Proviso basketball game, assembly programs, and the clean-up campaign. The Council sent Patty Alex, Miriam Boxerman, Billy Holmquist, Robert Johnson, and Esther Rostker, as delegates to the State Convention held in Peoria where Patty Alex was elected State Secretary.

Under the sponsorship of Miss Witham and Mr. Nickel, with Margaret Edwards, president; Marjorie Packalen, vice president; Miriam Boxerman, secretary; and Robert Johnson, treasurer; the Student Council has moved along smoothly this year.

Mayor Talcott presents official gavel to Student-Mayor-Elect Ferry to inaugurate third annual Student City Government Day.

STUDENT CITY GOVERNMENT

The gavel falls. The meeting comes to order. Mayor-for-a-day Monk Ferry takes over the council meeting. It is the last event in an eventful day.

Having been duly selected by their fellow students through the process of a primary and regular election, and subsequently instructed and installed by city officers, Senior class representatives took over the government of the city of Waukegan, November 16, 1938. It was the third annual observance of student participation in city government in Waukegan.

Harry Whyte and his deputy appointees moved into the city clerk's office. Bob Knox, treasurer, and his assistants struggled with the city finances, while Dick Dietz presided at the magistrate's desk in the police station, meting out the proper fines and sentences to petty offenders brought before him by his officers.

It was an exciting as well as an instructive and educational experience for all the participants. The gallery at the council meeting in the evening was jammed with student visitors.

With business-like precision, matters brought before the meeting were taken up and disposed of. Arguments were brilliant and convincing. Again the gavel falls. The meeting is adjourned. The third annual Student Government day is ended.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The climax to four years of leadership, scholarship, display of character, and service to the school on the part of eighteen seniors was their induction into the National Honor Society. The students who achieved this honor were initiated into the society, December 5, 1938. Only fifteen per cent of the senior class students who are in the upper third of the class scholastically may have this honor conferred upon them.

The seniors elected this year were: Ruth Bartz, Marcia Brown, Dorothy Chour, William Durka, Henry Eads, Rauha Hannula, Mary Hoogasian, Andy Galvin, Norma Lahti, Dorothy Luce, Janet Morrow, Marjorie Packalen, Virginia Owens, Lily Ranta, Bertram Rubin, Evelyn Samson, Lawrence Storms, and Robert Whitaker.

The inductors at the ceremony were: Lois French, Mary Alice Allen, Donald Birchfield, and June Enerson.

The flaming torches, lovely music, and gowned figures added to the impressiveness of this beautiful ceremony witnessed by parents, students, faculty, and friends.

VOCAL MUSICAL DEPARTMENT

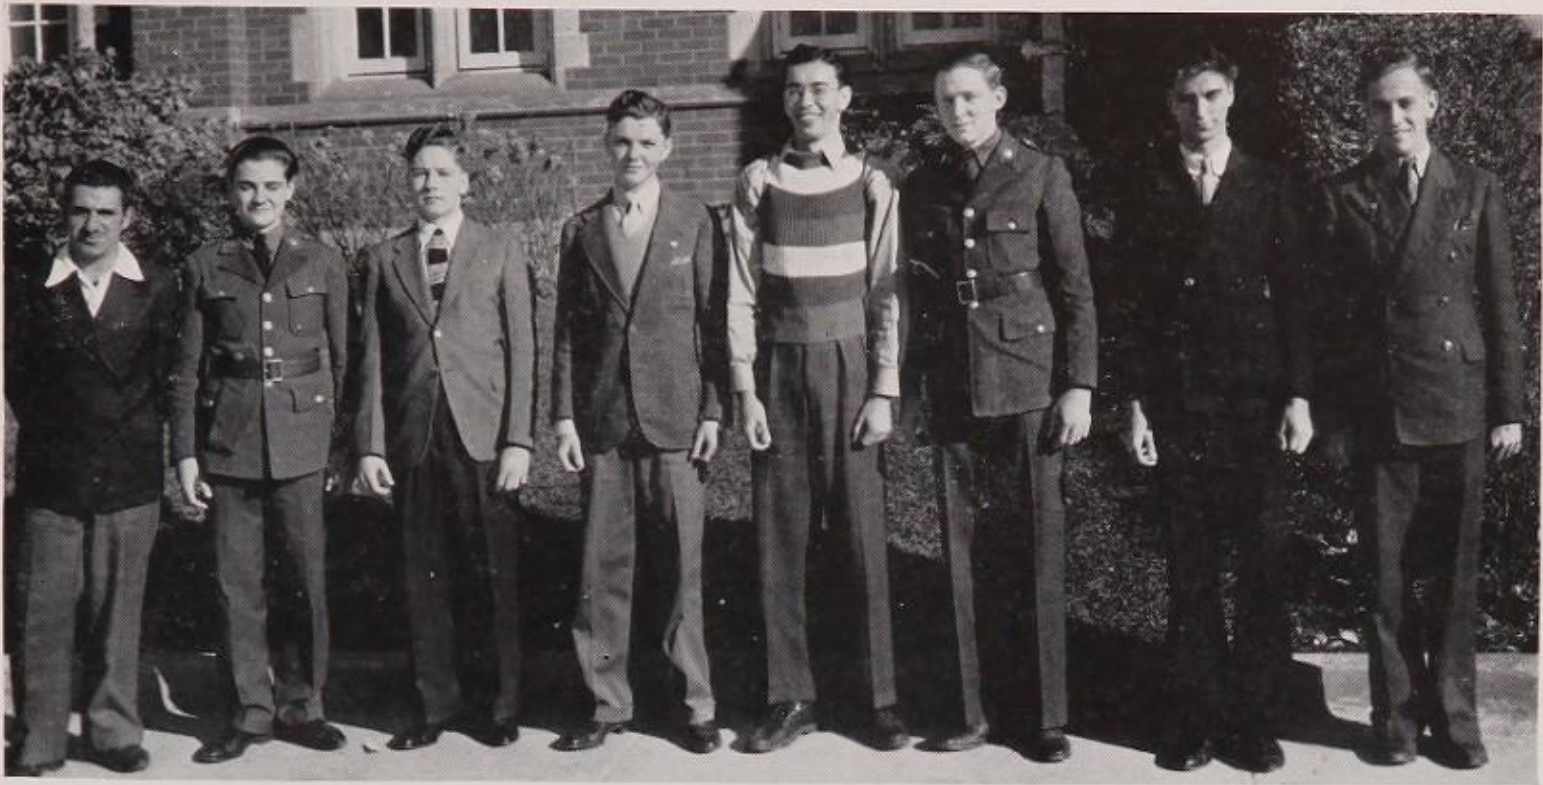

The vocal music department is made up of several groups. There are singers who are beginners and there are those who have had various degrees of experience. However, whether new in the field, or old, all are under the able direction of Mr. Schumann. The Boys' Glee Club is one of the oldest organizations in school, having twelve years to its credit. Both Boys' and Girls' Glee Club's purpose is to teach the singers the use of their singing voices. Those who discover how to use it properly find themselves in the smaller groups, the Boys' Octette, Girls' Trio, or even the A Cappella choir. This choir, as its name implies, sings without accompaniment and it teaches the members how to become proficient soloists.

All groups aid in presenting the Thanksgiving, Easter, and Christmas assembly programs, commencement, and baccalaureate services, operettas, the annual festival, recitals, and their variety shows.

Although much could be said concerning their singing abilities, something should be said of the amount of fun that blares forth every day from room 304. Hardly a national holiday goes by that one of the groups doesn't entertain itself with a party. Of course, the parties are always a success because the entertainment consists of floor shows by members of the class.

Mr. Schumann is to be congratulated upon the performance of his groups. The varied talents of his students must be developed and synchronized into harmoniously performing groups. They are called upon often and they are always prepared for the occasion.

WITCHES' HAUNT

Sixty-eight masquerading members of Miss Bernice Dunn's dramatics classes opened the season with their first choral revue, "The Witches' Haunt," staged October 21, 1938. In this colorful masquerade, green lights, mystery, unidentified victims, cowboys, Indians, Ma and Pa Peebles, original drama and dances, all contributed to the Hallowe'en spirit. The cast built the weird atmosphere with effective sound effects of the "Howling Wind," "The House is Haunted," and "The Witches' Haunt" in verse chorus.

The first part, "Welcome to our Haunt"; included "Ladies and Gentlemen," in verse chorus; "Crabbed Age and Youth"; an original skit, "Why Teachers Turn Gray"; a study in voice contrasts through the interpretation of "Life" and "Sunrise"; "Buckets of Blood," an original play by Susanne Henderson, was enacted by an all-girl cast.

The second part entitled "Shooting Stars" took place in a theatrical agency with Wayne Hanson as manager; Emma Belle Pierce, secretary; and Nancy Doolittle, musician. The various acts demonstrated were a novelty trio, "Home on the Range," Armenian song and dance by Rose Bedrosian, "The Oyster Lecturer," Suzanne Johnson; "The Runaways," "The Lone Sisters," and "The Waiters' Parade."

Part three, "Good Night," consisted of an Indian Legend, "Red Wing," by Jane Skidmore; and a cowboy's song by Marie Garbrek. "We Will Try to Leave You Laughing" by the sixty-eight members of the speaking chorus; and "Modern Lullaby" interpreted by the seventh hour drama class closed the program.

Student directors for the verse choral revue were Amanda Kerpan, Jo Anne Kirkham, Katherine Leech, Anita Lewis, and Jean Smith.

SLUMBER BOAT

Members of the Drama and Choral Music departments under the direction of Miss Bernice Dunn and M. Schumann, presented "SLUMBER BOAT," a children's play, February 4, 1939. A double cast gave two performances.

The setting for this unusual play was in the clouds; the time was either past or present. The S. S. SLUMBER BOAT sailed on its Midnite cruise through dreamland with a varied crew who shared the joys, disappointments and surprises aboard the Slumber Boat.

The trouble makers were Nightmare, the mischiefmaker, acted by Ralph Swank and Rosalie Levin; Rag Tag, the girl without a lucky star, played by Harriet Wolter and Patsy Oetjen; and Cry Baby, the general nuisance, bawled by Dorothy Yumplot and Helen Szezyk. Irene Harazak and Ray Petkus interpreted the grouchy sandman who organized the trip. Amanda Kerpan and Shirley McMahon "who-who'd" as Hoot Owl, the sandman's handyman. Emma Bell Pierce and Robert Mills romped riotously thru as Busy Buddy, the pest Wayne Hanson yelped protectingly as Scrappy, Rag Tag's faithful friend; while Don Carlson beamed over all as the Man-in-the-Moon.

SENIOR PLAY CAST

Seated: M. Butler, K. Leech, H. Whyte, A. Kerpan, B. Stewart. Standing: C. Noll, S. Henderson, W. Durka, R. Bartz, A. Smith, S. Johnson, C. Dalton, M. Edwards, R. Kaymen.

THE TRAIL OF THE LONESOME PINE

"The Trail of the Lonesome Pine," the amusing play presented by the June class of 1939, crowded fast action, pathos, and rollicking humor into three riotous acts. What with all the shooting, feuds, and fun, there was not a dull moment.

This popular play was adapted by Alice Chadwicks from John Fox's novel by the same name. The entire action of the play takes place in the interior of the Tolliver cabin at Lonesome Cove in the heart of the Blue Ridge mountains in Virginia. Susanne Henderson gave a convincing performance as the lovely heroine, June Tolliver; Margaret Edwards was her devoted sister, Sal; Harry Whyte played the part of Bub Tolliver, their younger brother; William Durka, as their stern father, Judd Tolliver, kept them all stepping; Hannah Tolliver, the ailing step-mother, was portrayed by Margaret Butler.

VESTED INTERESTS

Richard Kaymen, as Dave Toliver, a distant cousin, was in love with June; Shirley June Johnson helped make things lively as Dave's mischievous sister, Loretta. Easy-going Uncle Billy Beams, the Justice of the peace who never arrested anyone, was played by Aaron Smith; Ruth Bartz enacted the role of Ole Hon, his domineering wife; Ellie May, their daughter who "just cain't remember" was played by Betty Jo Stewart; Charles Noll played Red Fox. Charles Dalton was Jack Hale, the young northerner; Katherine Leech played Anne Saunders, a northern school teacher; and Maw Falin, a forlorn old mountain woman, was played by Amanda Kerpan.

This was the first time that a play of this type had been attempted on the Senior Assembly stage. After conquering their lines, the cast applied five weeks to concentrate effort on acting interpretations of those lines and on the characterizations of those Blue Ridge mountaineers. Miss Bernice Dunn directed the cast.

THE CONCERT BAND

WTHS BAND

Eins, zwei, drei, spiel! Zuch zounds vot is comink from de band room vere de concert band izz bractisink!

Herr Graham is rehearsing his Fritzes. They are again preparing for that great contest. Last year the band received second division rating in the National contest held at Elkhart, Indiana. The "W" musicians gave a worthy concert performance in this contest, but their sight reading brought their rating down.

Johannes Rasmussen and Bill Bergling won first in the cornet trio division. Johannes also won second division in the cornet solos as did Eric Ildstrom on the baritone. Third rating was given to Bob Paxton with his baritone.

The Brass quartette, consisting of Chuck Dalton and Bob Eimerman, cornets, Bob Paxton, baritone, and Willis Mayfield, trombone, was awarded second rating. Otto Graham Jr. was a winner on the French horn with the Brass sextette.

Scanning the list of awards for the year, we notice that second division ratings in the State were awarded to Albert Ofenlock, clarinet; Gloria Douthitt, flute; Willis Mayfield, trombone; Henry Saam, alto saxophone; and Eddie Shultis, baritone saxophone. In third division were Adolph Reilo, flute; and Elaine Baker, piano.

Our handsome bandsters gave their concert April 1, 1938 before a record size audience of 2,600. This performance has been generally acclaimed one of the finest concerts the band has ever given. This year's concert was performed April 14, 1939, before an even larger crowd. Many fine contest solos and group numbers were played with the grace of the masters.

THE JUNIOR BAND

The National Band Clinic was held at the University of Illinois in January of this year. Among the boys chosen to represent Waukegan were: Al Ofenlock, Vic Graham, and George Dietmeyer, clarinets; Henry Saam, alto saxophone; Eddie Shultis, baritone saxophone; Harry S. Wilson, sarrusaphone; and Eric Idstrom, baritone. The clinic, which is an annual event, is selected from among the best players in high schools all over the United States.

The concert band is a strong supporter of the community civic organizations, as well as of all the other activities of the high school.

The Junior band is progressing in the training of its members. It serves as an apprenticeship for the younger bandsters. All of the little Fritzie's are working towards qualifying for the big band, and those who persist can hope to have their ambitions realized.

SENIOR ORCHESTRA

Squeak, squeak, squeak! It is the sound of the violins of the Senior Orchestra. The violinists are Sam Rosen, Magdeline Popoff, David Hutchins, and Ray Harju. Determined not to let the violinists get all the credit for bringing forth such sweet music, the rest of the orchestra add their music's worth. They are Gloria Douthitt, who plays flute, Irene Bottcher, on the bass fiddle and Al Ofenloch, who plays clarinet. Of course no good orchestra is complete without a piano player; Lorraine Deibler and Dorothy Lindquist are the pianists in the W.T.H.S. orchestra. Leading the group of young musicians, we have none other than our good friend Mr. Graham.

The orchestra plays for graduations, during intermissions of school plays, and operettas, and at the different high school concerts.

RESERVE OFFICERS TRAINING CORPS

On this the twentieth anniversary of its organization, the high school ROTC boasts an enrollment of almost 600, which is an all-time record for number of boys served during a semester.

The growth and development of the local cadet unit since its initial inauguration as a part of the high school's educational offering on April 23, 1919 has been a steady and continuous process. Under the supervision of Major George A. Hunt, U. S. Army, who has been in charge of the unit for the past four years, marked improvement has become evident in every department of the high school training corps.

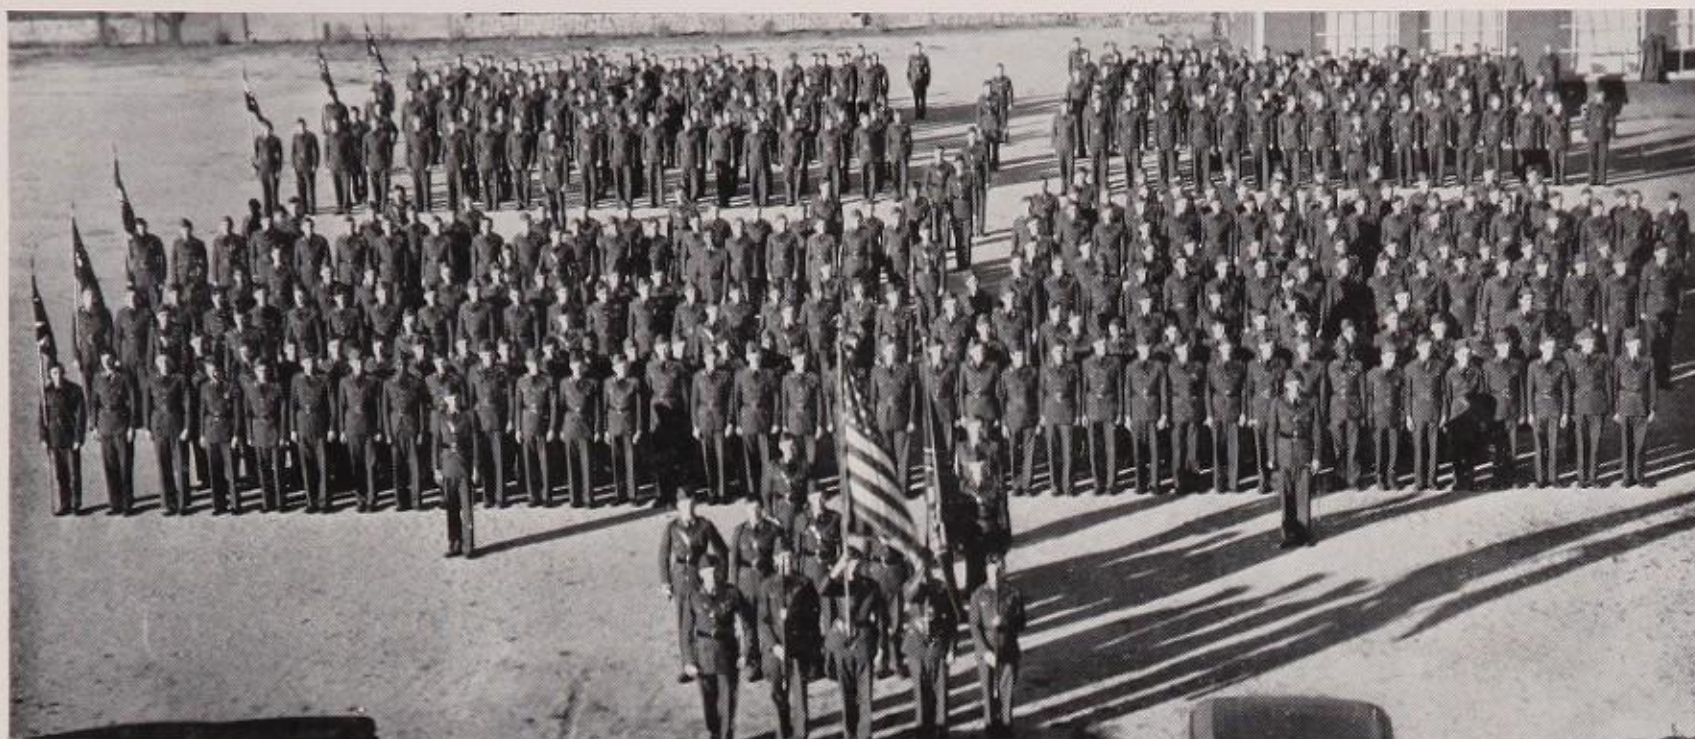

Among other changes instituted during the past year was the introduction of a merit system of awards for proficiency in theory and drill, a plan which has already proved its worth by encouraging the boys in self improvement. The raising of the standards for qualifications for the semester medals given by the Chicago Tribune marks another step in the general up-grading of the course of study for the ROTC.

With the careful coordination of the activities of the cadet corps with the activities of the other departments of the high school, the place of the ROTC as an integral factor in a young man's educational preparation is becoming increasingly evident.

Annual inspection of the unit by an officer of the Sixth Army Corps, under whose jurisdiction the local ROTC is administered, marks the climax of the year's activities for the cadets. Meticulous attention to details, as emphasized by Major Hunt and his assistant, Staff Sergeant Holly, has enabled the local unit to maintain an enviable rating among cadet corps in this area for the past several years.

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The Athletic Association made its activities more widespread this year. As usual the students who are members of this group furnished the publicity for all athletic events, sponsored the sale of basketball season tickets, and the distribution of identification tickets for out-of-town games.

A new development this year was a survey made of business establishments where publicity posters could be placed to the best advantage. Another new accomplishment was the Sweater Dance after one of the basketball games.

Charles Dalton served as president; Vincent Levandusky as vice-president; Nancy Swirles as secretary; Mr. Bauernfeind as sponsor; Mr. Jickling treasurer and co-sponsor. The officers in turn appointed Ruth Makela and Richard Turner as the Advertising Committee; Barbara Lewis and Robert John as the Publicity Committee.

CHEERLEADERS

A very worthwhile organization, the Cheerleaders, gives the fans and the team much encouragement during the games. The boys spend one night weekly during football and basketball season learning and practicing new and old yells. Cheerleaders "W's" are awarded to the boys who qualify, according to the club's constitution.

First semester, Frank Hurley was elected president; LeRoy Van Sickle, vice-president; and Bob Schwartz, secretary-treasurer. As the second semester came around, votes were cast again and they revealed that George Vanderhei was the new president; Tom Cliff, vice-president; and Jack Sisty, secretary-treasurer.

Other cheerleaders belonging to the club are Eugene Pillifant and Darrell Byerly. Mr. Cole has had Mr. Van Deusen working with him as co-sponsor.

Otto Graham won high honors and was placed on the All-State third team. Alex Kapter, Ed McCarthy, and Otto Graham made the All-Suburban league eleven. Three Waukegan gridgers were named on the All-Lake County team. They are: Otto Graham, Alex Kapter, and Leonard Machek, who was named captain of the dream team.

The American Business Club gave their ninth annual banquet for the gridgers. The speaker was Coach Paddy Driscoll of Marquette. Captain Ferry presented Coach Mark Wilson with a beautiful casting rod as a gift from the team.

Wilson announced that the sixteen major "W" winners were: George Cooper, Richard Dietz, Lawrence Ferry, Otto Graham, James Hall, Harry Haroian, John Jerusis, Alex Kapter, Vincent Levandusky, Leonard Machek, Ed McCarthy, John Sahagian, Erland Sandelin, Leonard Sczpanek, George Van Treeck, and Richard Zadigan. Coaches Singer and Canine met with a large squad of twenty-seven young men, only two of whom were on the team last season. The boys saw plenty of action this year playing six games, winning one, losing three, and tying two. The opening game of the season was with Evanston, and it was a sad one for Waukegan because Evanston beat them by a 7 to 0 score. New Trier tied Waukegan 6 to 6. Waukegan put up an excellent fight against their toughest opponents of the year, Oak Park, but Oak Park trounced them 24 to 13. Hyde Park and Waukegan played a 0 to 0 tie. Proviso won 14 to 0, but Waukegan triumphed in their last game of the season by taking Morton 13 to 7.

There were fifteen minor "W" winners. They were: Aherns, Burkey, Durst, Haroian, Hutton, Kern, Moore, Neville, O'Flaherty, Pasiewicz, Reilly, Rodriguez, Sitzmer, Seremjian, and Tornquist. E. Hansen received a "Mgr. W" award.

BASKETBALL—VARSIITY

With four lettermen returning among the throng of boys who reported for basketball when Coach Brown issued the call, a good season was in sight. After a week's rest from football, many more boys reported.

The team won thirteen games while losing seven during the season. Five of those losses were in the Suburban league with seven wins in the same class. Waukegan was the only team to beat both Morton and Oak Park who tied for first in the Suburban league.

The high point of the season was the game against Dundee, 1937-38 State Champions. Breaking Dundee's 44 game winning streak, Waukegan nosed the champs out 46 to 44. Otto Graham tallied 20 points while Bob Pierce tossed in 13.

Otto Graham was lost to the team for the State tournament because of mid-year graduation. Waukegan was runner-up in the Regional held at Waukegan. Playing at Elgin in the Sectional, Waukegan was defeated 45 to 38 by East Aurora in the first game.

Bob Pierce was the Suburban league's third high point man. Besides being third high scorer, Bob also was placed on the All-Suburban league first team. Mickey Van Heirseele and Bob Pierce were named among the nine best players in the Regional Tournament.

The lettermen were: Henry Bried, George Cooper, Richard Dietz, Otto Graham, Ernest Kowal, Robert Pierce, Leonard Sczpanek, and Emil Van Heirseele.

Minors were received by Raymond Adams, Alex Anastoff, Ralph Burnett, Alex Kapter, Eugene Strang, Carl Swanson, Lawrence Van Treeck, and Richard Zadigian. Elmer Sorsa merited a manager's award.

As soon as football was over, Mr. Wilson issued a call for Frosh-Soph basketball players. A good crop turned out. Much good material was found and developed for next year's varsity quintet. As far as wins and losses in the Suburban league are concerned, Waukegan placed fifth with five wins and seven losses.

There were many hard fought, close games during the season including the frays with Proviso and Highland Park. Proviso nosed out Waukegan by a single tally 35 to 34. Waukegan defeated the latter by a one point margin 19 to 18.

Lloyd Leach was placed on the Frosh-Soph All-Suburban league second team.

Minor winners were: James Huffine, Walter Hutton, George Kekorian, Lloyd Leech, Leslie Milholan, Wm. Reilly, Mike Seremjain, Roger Tennyson, and Mike Zaker. Reinbach received a manager's award.

Numerals went to Bob Allen, Nick Angeloupas, Tom Effinger, Jack Emmons, Glen Fiddymont, Wm. Grosche, Fred Kranontka, Wm. Marabella, Ray McLellan, and George Sonn.

TENNIS 1938

As soon as it was warm enough out so that one would not freeze one's hands, Mr. Suchanski was out at Weiss Field with eight or nine lads getting the feel of the good old tennis racquet again. After much practicing, Waukegan played its first match of the season against Kenosha and won 4 to 1. They beat Highland Park in their next meet by the same score. The Waukegan boys never saw victory again all season for New Trier took them 5 to 0. Evanston nosed out a 3 to 2 victory. Oak Park walked right through Waukegan to a 5 to 0 win. Morton defeated Waukegan in the last match of the season 4 to 1.

Waukegan ended up in fourth place in the Suburban league.

In the Suburban Tournament Waukegan lost both of its matches. Leonard Mansfield was defeated by Lydiard of Oak Park 6-2, 5-7, and 6-3. Harry Whyte and Chas Mix lost their double match to Jerik and Reider of Morton 6-4, 1-6, and 6-4.

1938 GOLF TEAM

Seated: Antony Zainer, Charles Kolbrick, Myles Scheribel, Frank Jaronik, Robert Pierce. Standing: Frank Nolan, Phillip, McDonald, John Rossiter, Rae Voelpel, Mr. Morley.

1938 GOLF

Something new this year to Waukegan was a Suburban League Championship in golf. The Waukegan lads never lost a match in league competition! That is a feat in itself. They downed Evanston, Highland Park, Morton, New Trier, Proviso, and Oak Park in succession. They also trimmed Antioch in a warm-up match.

Waukegan, headed by Frank Jaronik, captain, defeated Evanston 9 to 6. Coach Morley's link goers whipped Highland Park 10 to 5. Against Morton, Waukegan exhibited its usual steady game and came through with a 9 to 6 victory. New Trier was Waukegan's next victim for they were out-putted to a tune of 9½ to 5½. Proviso was downed by the same score. Waukegan handed Oak Park a 12 to 3 trouncing. Charles Kolbrick was the Suburban league's individual champion.

Waukegan placed second in the District Meet. McHenry nosed out Waukegan by two strokes. Waukegan also placed second in the Suburban league's Invitational Meet.

Major "W's" were awarded to Frank Jaronik, Charles Kolbrick, Robert Pierce, Myles Sheribel, and Anthony Zanier.

VARSIITY SWIMMING

When November rolled around, Coach Morley called for all boys who thought they were talented in swimming. A large squad reported but few experienced men were among the group. The boys practiced turns, starts, and turns every night. Because of lack of experience, the team did not fare so good, but built up for the coming season.

Waukegan placed last in the Suburban Swimming meet at New Trier. New Trier copped the event.

Lettermen were: Don Birchfield, Gilbert Braun, George Dietmeyer, and George Hewitt. The manager was Steve Sevesky.

FROSH-SOPH SWIMMING

Coach Canine's junior lads fared better than the varsity as far as wins and losses were concerned. The junior tank goers won one, tied two, and lost four. The Frosh-Sophs lost their first meet to Highland Park by one point. They tied Evanston. Morton drowned Waukegan, but the locals revived to tie Highland Park and sink Proviso. Waukegan later lost to Oak Park and New Trier.

The Frosh-Soph placed sixth in the Suburban league meet.

Minor "W" awards were issued to: Richard Dechert, Guerdon Green, Wilfred Korpi, George Liljenfeldt, Jack Morley, Jack Sisty, and John Van Sickle. Roger Crump received a manager's award.

GIRLS' ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The boat pulled out from New York last April, carrying the G. A. A. crew "Around the world" in their annual Water Pageant. Then along came summer 1938, the girls shoved off to camp. Came November . . . In cooperation with the Girls' League, the G. A. A. put on their Penny Carnival. At this event Anita Perry, Tom Tinsley, Nancy Tinsley, and Victor Graham were crowned the leaders of popularity. Ten of our girls went "truckin' on down" on their jitterbug playday. These trusty jitterbugs have been under the sponsorship of Miss Morehouse and Miss Dennis with Annie Chaderjian, Emily Burnett, Josephine Norbutas leading the way as club officers. This club is very active in sports. Among the sports sponsored are: volley'ball, speedball, basketball, diving, and bowling.

Tumbling And Life Saving

Tuesday, yes that's the day for tumbling. The girls practice after school in the G. A. A. and Girls' League club room. This exercise develops the body in many ways. It makes for greater skill and proficiency in games. The girls work singly, by twos, and in groups in doing these acrobatics stunts.

Life Saving is held twice a week in the school pool. Girls must have ten weeks of practice before they can pass any test. Junior Life Saving tests are given to girls under seventeen years of age; Senior Life Saving is for older girls. Miss Dennis and Miss Morehouse are the sponsors of both tumbling and life saving.

Girls' League and Girls' Athletic Association Carnival

ANITA PERRY

TOM TINSLEY

It might have been a Swiss outdoor bazaar for all the merry laughter and loud shouting that arose from the Carnival grounds, situated this night on the gymnasium floor. The girls with their brightly colored dresses, the booths with their purple and gold streamers, and hundreds of gayly colored balloons tossing about in the breeze, were all just a part of this huge annual affair. The lemonade stand was swamped with groups of thirsty patrons while the dance floor was flooded with eager jitterbugs..

But when the clock hands pointed to ten the clamor faded away leaving only the hushed whispers to reign over the now almost silent gym.

Boys garbed in military uniforms stepped into the breathless masses and mingling amongst them singled out two, the King and Queen, Tom Tinsley and Anita Perry! With military precision the boys threw regal velvet cloaks over the honored two and escorted them to their thrones. Again the military boys marched into the throng and chose two more, the prince and princess, Victor Graham and Nancy Tinsley!

Then breaking away from the crowd the royal couples attendants Ann Link, Jeanne Walker, Mackie Beman, and Otto Graham walked with stately grace to their place of honor, near the King and Queen's throne.

A dramatic pause and Mr. Thalman crowned the queen and princess with wreaths of flowers. To the king and prince went golden crowns. Applause rang out to fill the gym as Anita and Tom received their gifts, presented to them by the local stores.

All was still as the king and queen stepped from their thrones to be swallowed up once again by the carnival crowd.

*M*ORE than three-quarters of a century ago, two men working in a New York City basement making roofing with the aid of a clothes wringer started the firm that is known today as Johns-Manville.

Now there are more than 10,000 J-M jobholders and their payrolls send hundreds of thousands of dollars every year into the seventeen communities where J-M operates factories, mines or quarries.

Perhaps in some basement in this very neighborhood today or tomorrow two young men just out of school will develop another New Idea that will provide thousands of other jobs — for everything starts with an idea — an idea that will grow like the one that made J-M into a new industry. This is the kind of progress which helps make America the Land of Opportunity.
